We believe when we secured the "Sacred Songs" to furnish our subscribers that when they were once thoroughly introduced there would be a great demand for them. They are going rapidly. They only cost 25 cents. Postage stamps will do.

"It is no false pretense," says Dr. D. S. Hanson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Chicago, "to claim that 'Sacred Songs' is a collection of the best and most popular devotional selections gathered from the greatest composers of sacred music. It is a basket of precious gems that ought to be in every choir, and in every home where there are lovers of sacred song."

If a retailer found that every attempt at substitution cost him a customer he would soon be tired of it, and would supply what the public asks for.
There is a high profit in substitution, aided by public indifference. There will be no profit at all if people, always and every where, refuse counterfeit articles.
